

REMEMBER YOUR PASSPORT... and forget the hassle

As of January 23, 2007, all persons, including U.S. citizens, must present a passport or other acceptable identity/citizenship document* to enter the United States when arriving by air.

Apply for your passport today. And experience smoother, more secure travel tomorrow.

Visit www.travel.state.gov for more information on how to obtain a passport.

*Other acceptable documents are the U.S. Coast Guard Merchant Mariner's Document, the NEXUS Air Card, or the U.S. Permanent Resident Card.

U.S. citizens returning directly from a U.S. territory are not considered to have left the U.S. territory and do not need to present a passport. U.S. territories include the following: Guam, Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, American Samoa, Swains Island and the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands (NMI).
